Branches of Government

The 2013 exam extensively tested knowledge of the three branches:

- Legislative (Congress): Responsible for making laws. Comprised of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

- Executive (President): Enforces laws. The President also has powers such as vetoing legislation and conducting foreign policy.
- Judicial (Supreme Court): Interprets laws and determines constitutionality.

- The judicial review established by Marbury v. Madison.

Sample Question and Answer Analysis:

The exam questions often addressed the difference between civil liberties (personal freedoms protected from government interference) and civil rights (protections against discrimination and for equal treatment).

Key Topics:
